

The image shows a vertical scroll of a Twitter conversation. At the top, there's a header banner with portraits of Joe Biden and Donald Trump, and large percentages "34%" and "66%". Below this is the profile of @ISafeyet, who has 13.9K followers and 13.4K following. The main tweet is titled "IsItSafeYet?StolenElectionsHaveHellishConsequences" and contains text about election safety and racism. It has 53 replies, 428 retweets, and 351 likes. A pinned tweet follows, replying to @simo6608, @markred17, and others, mentioning a video of a man counting fingers. This is followed by a retweet from Dinesh D'Souza (@DineshDSouza) about Biden's Afghanistan disaster. Another retweet from @WenMaMa2 mentions Lara Logan and the Patriots in Solitary Confinement. The thread continues with more retweets, including one from Lagertha (@juzjaz2) about IFBAP and another from @KEITHO. Further down, GrannieLynda (@Lynda63986855) shares a link to a report about the majority of Afghans and SIVs who helped the US. One America News (@OANN) also shares a link to a report about mobilized GOP groups pushing for a Wisconsin election audit. The final visible tweet is from RSNB (@RSBNetwork) dated Aug 31, stating it's "Absolutely detestable," accompanied by photos of Mark Zuckerberg and a soldier. The bottom of the image shows a video player interface with a play button.

We left behind $85 billion of military equipment to terrorists who chant "Death to America".

No one involved should be able to keep their job after that.

A court-martial or court martial (plural courts-martial or courts martial, as "martial" is a postpositive adjective) is a military court or a trial conducted in such a court. A court-martial is empowered to determine the guilt of members of the armed forces subject to military law, and, if the defendant is found guilty, to decide upon punishment. In addition, courts-martial may be used to try prisoners of war for war crimes. The Geneva Conventions require that POWs who are on trial for war crimes be subject to the same procedures as would be the holding military's own forces. Finally, courts-martial can
